“We Receive Enduring Joy in Christ”

Check out these words quoted by John, from Jesus (16:22) “you have sorrow now, but I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take your joy from you.”

“No one will take your joy from you” because your joy comes from being with Jesus and the resurrection of Jesus means that you will never die; you will never be cut off from Him. So, two things have to be true if your joy is never to be taken from you. One is that the source of your joy lasts forever and the other is that you last forever. If either you or the source of your joy is mortal, your joy will soon be taken from you.

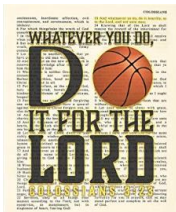

And think, how many people have settled for just that! Eat, Drink, and be Merry they say for tomorrow we die and that is that. Food doesn't last forever, and I don't last forever, so lets make the most of it while we can. Now that is a tragedy. Take a moment and read Luke 12:19-21.

If you are tempted to think that way, consider as seriously as you possibly can that if your joy comes from being with Jesus, “No one will ever take your joy from you” – not in this life nor in the life to come.

Joy is being with Jesus is an unbroken line from now until eternity. It will not be cut off – not by His death or ours.

Thanks be to God, Amen.

In Christ,
Coach Mac

Our Wednesday Fireside Chats that were held at 6:45 PM every Wednesday will now be at 6:00 PM, do to Daylight Savings Time on Castile UCC's Facebook Page.

5:55 PM - P.T.P.

Prayer may not be easy for you. I struggle with it too. But it's the speaking part of your relationship with God. Think of Prayer as a conversation. You speak to God in Prayer, then you listen attentively as He speaks to you as you read your Bible.

You know we can all benefit from techniques, guidelines, or train of thought... so let me throw out something that helps me in my prayers – P. T. P.

Praise, Thanks, Petition.

- PRAISE GOD for who He is, and what He has done for us as Creator...
- THANK GOD for all His blessings He has afforded us in our lives, including the gift of His Son, Jesus...
- Then, PETITION GOD for what you need.

(Read John 15:7)

"If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, you will ask what you desire, and it shall be done for you."

ALONG with your personal petitions should be prayers of intercessions... praying on behalf of others.

Prayer is not letting God do what you want... prayer is lining up your heart, will, and thoughts with what God wants. Prayer is lining up with God's will.

And how do you know what HIS will is? By abiding in, and trusting, and obeying God's word.

So SET YOUR Phone Alarm for 5:55 everyday – Take time to stop and PRAY P.T.P

Music News:

The choir will return to the Sanctuary for worship soon! It will be in a modified fashion and the look will be different, but we will be having live music! There will be no more than 4 people singing from behind plexiglass shields with social distancing. It is a musical step forward in returning to our "normal" worship experience. Also, thank you to Elaine Keif for her donation towards the FIVE NEW MUSIC STANDS for the choirs to use.

It was so great to have the handchimes play recently and we look forward to more musical offerings from this group. The You Tube videos will continue to enhance our services when needed or appropriate. Many of you have expressed your appreciation for them. It is my pleasure to serve you as your music director in many capacities.

"Letters from Home"

In appreciation for our Veterans service to our country, we are hosting a "LETTERS FROM HOME" Veteran's Service, on Sunday, November 8, 2020, during our 10:00 AM Worship.

We are inviting members and friends, as well as Veterans and their families to join us for this special service. This event will also be broadcast via Facebook Live.

Following our Worship Service all are invited to take a "To Go Only" C – Ration Meal Box.

Please visit our "Mess Hall" (Embling Dining Hall) to pick up your C – Ration box. Three lunch options will be offered. Ham & Cheese, Turkey & Cheese or Peanut Butter.

On behalf of the Castile United Church of Christ, we thank you so much for your service to this great country of ours.

C - Ration Boxes

"Iron Ration" (1907-1922)

The first U.S attempt to make an individual ration for issue to soldiers in the field was the "iron ration", first introduced in 1907. It consisted of three 3-ounce cakes (made from a concoction of beef bouillon powder and parched and cooked wheat), three 1-ounce bars of sweetened chocolate, and packets of salt and pepper. The ration was issued in a sealed tin packet that weighed one pound and was designed for emergency use when the troops were unable to be supplied with food. It was later discontinued by the adoption of the "Reserve Ration."

"Reserve Ration" (1917-1937)

The Reserve Ration was a ration issued during the latter part of World War I to feed troops who were away from a garrison or field kitchen. It originally consisted of 12 ounces of bacon or one pound of meat (usually canned corned beef), two 8 ounces cans of hard bread or hardtack biscuits, a packet of 1.16 ounces of pre-ground coffee, a packet of 2.4 ounces of granulated sugar, and a packet of 0.16 ounces of salt.

In 1922, the ration was reorganized to consist of 1 pound of meat (usually beef jerky), 3 oz. of canned corned beef or chocolate, 14 oz. of hard bread or hardtack biscuits, coffee and sugar. In 1925, the meat ration was replaced with canned pork and beans. In 1936, there was an attempt at variety by having an "A"-menu of corned beef and a "B"-menu of pork and beans. This was cancelled upon introduction of the new Field Ration, Type C, in 1938.

Field Ration, Type C (1938-1945)

The original Type C ration, commonly known as the C ration, was intended to replace the Reserve Ration as a short-term individual ration designed for infrequent use. The first Type C ration consisted of a 16-ounce 'meat' unit (M-unit). In the initial Type C ration, there were only three variations of the main course: meat and beans, meat and potato hash, or meat and vegetable stew. Also issued was one bread-and-dessert can, or B-unit. Each daily ration (i.e. enough food for one soldier for one day) consisted of six 12-ounce cans (three M-units and three B-units), while an individual meal consisted of one M-unit and one B-unit.

The C-Ration was replaced in 1958 with the Meal Combat Individual (MCI). Although officially a new ration, the MCI was derived from and very similar to the original C-Ration, and in fact continued to be called "C-Rations" by American troops throughout its production life as a combat ration (1958–1980). While the MRE officially replaced the MCI in 1981, previously packed MCI rations continued to be issued until depleted.

Christmas Eve Service

For this one night, so much of the world takes a moment in time to pause, praise and ponder about the significance of His birth. And we here at Castile UCC are no different. We will gather here in the sanctuary to sing the familiar carols, hear the wonderful scripture and each in our own way will celebrate His coming.

So, set aside the evening of December 24th to worship with us as we finish the story we began last year.

Listen to prophetic verses, witness as Mary visits her cousin Elizabeth and watch as the world perceives His birth. See you there.

Answer to Cross on the Wall is Number 1!
