Greeting and Announcements

♦ Hymn of Praise No. 151 “Good Christian Men, Rejoice”

Call to Worship: (You may be seated)

Pastor: Before all time and all worlds, there was the Word.

That word came to our time and place as a human being.

People: The Word was the truth of God.

That Word has come to us in Jesus Christ.

Pastor: God has spoken through creation and through the prophets.

Yet, the person of Jesus speaks to us most clearly.

People: In Christ, we see the glory and kindness of God.

Through Christ, we know we are God's children.

Pastor: Come, then, to sing new songs of praise.

Rejoice that God sends messengers of good news.

People: We bring the melodies of our hearts and voices.

Praise God with harp and trumpets and horns!

♦ Opening Hymn No. 133 “Hark! The Herald Angels Sing” vs. 1 & 2

Prayer of Invocation: (Please stand)

Amid the joyful songs of Christmastide, we pause, O God, to let the joy seep into the pores of our being. We take these moments to ponder your faithfulness, even when we have ignored you. We reach for your peace that turns us from our frantic preoccupation with so much that denies life. May the brightness of your glory be reflected on us in a time of genuine worship. May it shine through us, changing what we see and hear as we pass through your world. Amen.
